I swear, that my soul is dying (dying)
Founding myself crying (crying)
Hurting so deeply (into deep)

And I swear , little bit of sadness is madness
I know that all that I have given to you
Wasn't all that you give me back to

I

I swear, that I can not breath properly
I have no feeling left
After all these years

Cause you, you've built a path for me
Of pain and misadventures
And want me to join your tears

II

For so long, we've been together baby
I need to be alone
With my own thoughts
So please, love me right now, right here
I hope you'll understand
That this is a goodbye
