Wherever you go, I would always be with you
Whatever we go through, my heart would bit for you
And no matter what happen I'll be waiting, just waiting Untill you come back for me, untill you come back to me

I.

Could you take my hand,
and lead me to the light.
Whatever happen then,
I'll fallow you tonight.
We'll cross the seas and oceans without getting deep.
The stars reflect emotions,
painted when we sleep.

Wherever you go, I would always be with you
Whatever we go through, my heart would bit for you
No matter what happen I will be waiting, just waiting
Untill you come back to me, untill you come back to me

II

I would curs you and persuade you
Just belive me, you will need me
When the world is getting darker I would beg you to forget to all that bad things that I've done to you
I don't mean it, please belive me
Don't you leave me (Don't you leave me, baby)...

Ref.

Wherever you go, I would always be with you
Whatever we go through, my heart would bit for you
No matter what happen I will be waiting, just waiting
Untill you come back to me, untill you come back to me
